But !

Classmates —

In order to be the first to hear all the excitin' details, you'll have to show up in 44 days (that's Saturday, July 14th) at Zingerman's Roadhouse for this 3rd & final Annual Pre-Reunion Event. It's informal! It's relaxing! It's amusing! And it's fun! A number of our favorite teachers will be returning, too! Plus, just as they did last year, they're accepting late homework with unconditional amnesty. Bring a friend, a classmate, a spouse, a significant other, or just yourself.

Oh — ! Please enter thru the Roadhouse's main door so that our Greeters can properly welcome you, fill out an Info Card, and give you a name tag.
Classmates with different last names — please include your 1963 monikers on those name tags.

If you've come to July's Annual Event in the past two years, you'll remember a problem the Roadhouse had with about a zillion pesky gnats. Well, problem solved. They've installed great big fans and redesigned parts of the patio. So ... it's much better now. No more bugs & it's a heck of a lot more comfortable on a hot day!

Plus !

- In addition to Reunion info announcements, we'll have another one of our popular (and lucrative) "50-50" Cash Raffles during the festivities.
(Were you there when Dennis Crawford won $100? Dennis was!)
- Pop, beer, and cocktails will return to the cash bar.
- Once again, we'll have the agreeably priced and delicious Zingerman's appetizers, salads, soups, burgers, sandwiches, and full dinners. Here's a link to this July's various menus.

And what do our beloved teachers say about the Class of '63 Annual Events?
LISTEN!

I'm looking forward to seeing the members of the class of 1963 and to learn from you how the knowledge we imparted was used to outsmart the faculty and administrators.

— Mr. Al Gallup

Three years of practice — you will have it PERFECT!

— Mr. Milo White

I am so impressed with my former students' achievements & how they turned out to be such great adults.

— Ms. Doris Taylor

Hey, what's not to like??? Nobody beat me up! It was FUN!

— Mr. Randy Peacock

I look forward to it — I fell in love with the idea. Never heard of any other class doing this kind of thing. It's great!

— Mr. John Nordlinger

Delayed gratification — it's so great seeing my "old kids" and how they turned out!

— Mr. Art Rogers

I was the only one there in a toga, but it was really friendly! Beer is a lot better than hemlock!

— Mr. Socrates

We sure hope to see everybody next month!

Please join us.
